"Capturing your science in motion" competition

Don't miss the closing date!

Scifest Africa presents the 2010 photography and drawing competition where you can win great prizes. Please post us your entry by 26 February 2010. Our postal address and contact details are on the back page of the flyer.

Your photograph or drawing should be something that reflects how science, technology and motion impacts your life or your world; something from the natural world that has sparked your interest in science; an amazing piece of machinery; bold and beautiful architecture or..... Let your imagination run wild on this.

You need to send us a description (max 100 words) of what your photograph or drawing is, where it was taken and why you feel it represents science in motion.

Judges will be looking for entries that show observation, imagination, creativity and comprehensive explanation.

We can't wait to receive your entries. Start observing the world around you NOW.

Rules for the competition:

1. The competition is open to all ages.
2. One entry per person.
3. Entries must not be bigger than A3.
4. Please include the following information with your entry: Full name and surname, daytime contact numbers, postal address, school name (if at school).
5. Prize giving will take place on the evening of 26 March 2010. Tickets will be arranged for the winners.
6. Entrants must be willing to have their entries reproduced.
7. Twelve entries will be selected for inclusion in a 2010/2011 calendar.
8. Scifest Africa cannot be held responsible for any loss or damage to entries.
9. Scifest Africa cannot guarantee your entry will be returned to you.
10. Competition closes on 26 February 2010 at 12h00 noon.